ELIZABETH KELLY, Correspondent. The Intermountain and Colorado atholic is placed on sale at the Catholic is placed on sale at the James Clarke church goods house, 647 California street, Denver, Colo.

Annual Alumni Banquet.

No gathering in the history of the Immaculate Conception Alimni association has been so thoroughly successful as the seventh annual banquet which occurred on June 17 at the Shirley hotolar the Shirley hotolar the affair was complimentary to the seven graduates of the Immaculate Conception high school, who were re-

The private dining room of the Shir-ley was attractively decorated, the class colors, green and white, being used in ofusion. The candelabra were shaded green and white carnations were scattered on the table cloth. Forty plates were laid.

Miss Angele Scherrer, the recently elected president of the association, gracefully introduced the toastmaster of ppy in his introductions of the night.

parish, but are garnered from all parts of the city. The year book is the work of Miss Ruth Lang, class of 1994, and her the association gave a vote of tertained at dinner during the week. thanks for the time and effort expended on securing definite news of the various Church Notes.

The Sisters of Lorette, conducting St. Mary's academy and Loretto Heights, have spent this week in annual retreat.

Father Shaw, one of the missionaries who recently concluded a successful two weeks of preaching in the pro-cathedral. left Sunday for Kansas City. Father Hanley, who with him conducted the mission, intends to remain at the St. Thomas seminary in South Denver

Father Francis Hennegan, formerly of the College of the Sacred Heart, who was ordained a short time ago by Cardinal Gibbons at Baltimore, after concluding his studies at St. Morrie Concluding his studies his his studies at St. Morrie Concluding his studies his his his h dinal Gibbons at Baltimore, after concluding his studies at St. Mary's seminary in that city, will soon arrive in Donver. He will be assigned to duty week by Father McMenamin.

their solemn meditations until Friday of that week. The retreatt will, as usual, be at the College of the Sacred Heart. Father Nugent, C. M., will conduct it.

Because he had on his death bed become not only a Christian but a Cathe. lie, the last ries of the sacred heart. As a substantial of the sacred heart. Will conduct it.

Mrs. James McKeough of Trinidad was a Denver visitor during the week.

Miss Jessle Curran, daughter, Mrs. James McKeough of Trinidad was a Denver visitor during the week. The priests of the dlocese of Denver will go into annual retreat on the even-ing of Monday, July 20, and continue come not only a Christian but a Catho-lic, the last ries of the church were Isaac Stein on Sunday, following which ceremony he passed peacefully away. Mr. Stein was of the Jewish away. Mr. Stein was or the series faith until two weeks ago, when after faith until two weeks ago, when after In the tized by Father McMenamin. In the early days of Denver Mr. Stein was a prominent politician. Two years ago he was employed on the construction work on the Moffat road in Routt county, and it was there that he was injured by Stein was a member of Branch 17, B. P. That organization conductes

The Sacred Heart College Dramatic lub rovered itself with glory last week producing "The Toastmaster," a in producing The Tollstmaster, a three producing The Tollstmaster, a considered by Norman Lee by of the Cathedral parish, sprained by Swartout. The play was given in confunction with the closing exercises at the college at the Womans club building. There were no graduates in the classical course, but commercial certain for some weeks. ton, John Patrick Akolt, Francia A. Baulsch, Frank W. Ryan, Joseph H. Heran, Joseph M. McAndrews, John D. Nevin, Joseph Mendoza and Earl Stati-ley Despain. In the absence of Bishop Mags, the diplomas were conferred by Harnel and Raymond L. Sullivan.

The cast of "The Toastmaster" fol-chaperoned the party plis, which was made in the class rooms for several days preceding the closing After an illness of many months. Sunday school is at 2.30.

helly, the pastor, to be able within two or three years to build a new church and convert the present house of wor-ship into a school building.

Wedding Bells.

sed in haded were buggan were married on Friday even-ing, June 19, by Father H. L. McMen-The ceremony took place at the home of the bride

> Miss Nellie Canton and William V. Ross were quietly married at the ca-thedral parochial residence last Sunday Father J. F. McDonough offi-happy in his introductions of the speakers. The following responded to toasts: Miss Mabel Tracy, Miss Sadie Mulrooney, Miss Bonnie Bonham, Miss Ruth Lang, Miss Mary Walsh, Miss Ruth Bonham, Baymond Hickey, Thomas Neary and Joseph Ryan.

Miss Mulrooney was suffering with a rold, and her response to the greeting to the class of 190s was read by Miss Katherine Kelty. The new members by the alumni are Misses Honora.

over the state.

A large number of friends assembled in Logan Avenue chapel Wednesday evening. June 17, to witness the marking to leave the school was distributed. The class motto is preserved year by year, and at the conclusion a lian of teachers who have at different ulate Conception high school. Is appended, giving the present address of mother of the bride, was best man. After the commony a reception was tendered in leave the school was distributed. The class motto is preserved with the Immachiate Conception high school. Is appended, giving the present address of mother to the bride, was best man. After the commony a reception was tendered to graduate a membership of mother to the bride, was best man. After the commony a reception was tendered the young couple at the home of the bride, was best man. After the commony a reception was tendered the young couple at the home of the bride sparents, Mr. and Mrs. James of which a music room is going the present address of the young couple at the home of the young was tendered the young couple at the home of the young couple at the home of the young couple at the home of the young was tendered to plant the young was tendered to young men and women in the cathedral parish, but are garnered from all parish of the city. The year book is the work of the city. The year book is the work of the city. The year book is the work of the young was tendered to young men and women in the cathedral parish, but are garnered from all parish.

* * *

Mrs. Thomas C. Cornish has gone to New York, whence she will sail in July for a summer in England.

Dr. and Mrs. Louis Hough entertained at dinner on Wednesday even-Ing.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bunti are pleas ntly established in their summer cotfor a time before returning to Denver.

She was baptized last

The home of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Gaule at 228 West Fourteenth avenue was gladdened last week by the coming of a little daughter.

Miss Beszle Phillips and Miss May Phillips, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Phillips of 1770 Marion street, returned last Sunday from St. Louis, where they were attending school at St. Joseph's academy.

Mrs. Ingalls, who came to Denver to attend the funeral of her brother, Joseph Fulham, left last week for her home in Omaha. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Richard Fulham, who will remain with her for some time.

Mrs. James Foley has gone to Fort Collins to visit her daughter, Mrs. Wil-liam Van Dusen, whose little daughter,

Marie, is quite III.

**

Miss Genevieve Lyman of St. Mary's academy, class of 1908, entertained her Monsignor Henry Robinson.

To the efforts of the give club is due not a little of the success of the propagation of the success of the propaga ney and Rose Gillespie. Mrs. Lyman

Miss Heloise Kenedy was the guest Who Owes and Can't Pay."

of honor at a party given last week by her aunts, Mrs. Major, Mrs. White and Mrs. Fulton in Edgewater. The guests were the classmates of Miss Kennery. Who Never Gives Up."

Who Never Gives Up."

Who Never Gives Up."

Who Leads the Opposition."

of honor at a party given last week by her aunts, Mrs. Major, Mrs. White and Mrs. Fulton in Edgewater. The guests were the classmates of Miss Kennery, who was graduated last week from St. Knights of Columbus in Nevada, for Marys' academy, and their friends. They were Misses Genevieve Lyman, The event, from all indications, will exercises, was proof that though young Mrs. Jane Doyle, widow of Andrew exercises, was proof that though young Mrs. Jane Doyle, widow of Andrew in years St. Francis de Sales school will Doyle, passed peacefully away Monday take second rank to none in the city. The Sisters of St. Joseph are in charge and are to be pongratulated upon the and are to be pongratulated upon the very exceleint work they are doing. It is the fond wish of Rev. Father Donnelly, the pastor, to be able within two or three years to build a new church there is a superior of Peerick and three daughters. Mrs. John I. Mullins of Denver, Mrs. George Heavilg of Peerick III and Mrs. Ed. Heuvig of Peoria, Ill., and Mrs. Edward Cahill of Canton, Ill., survive her.

The body was shipped for interment to Peoria III.

at 1952 New Haven street.

DEL NORTE, COLO.

At feature of the evening was the adoption of a new constitution, in which adoption is made for membership for some resident graduates upon the pay-(Special Correspondence.)

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Campion en- tion of the Jesuit fathers.

RENO, NEV.

St. Thomas Aquiinas Cathedral was dedicated in the city last Sunday, the ceremonies being witnessed by between 5,000 and 10,000 people. For several days past the priests of the Roman Catholic church have been gathering in Mrs. A. W. Walliser, who has been solourning abroad for three months, sailed on the Celtic last week for this country. She will visit in New York for a time before returning to this city in preparation for the occasion, and Sunday thousands of followers came from all directions to witness the impressive ceremonies. Bishop for a time before returning to country. She will visit in New York for a time before returning to Denver.

James R. Noland, who has spent a thedral is one of the finest on the coarthead in the coarth of the coarth o few weeks in New York arrived home and cost $72,000, the money having been the middle of this week.

Harry Epstine, who has taken up his permanent abode here. The baseball game yesterday between the Elks and Eagles of Tonopah, and the Millerites, brought out a large con-course of people, especially from Milcourse of people, especially from Mil-lers. The game was won by the Tonopah boys. A. Cadogan, more familiarly known as Tony. has come to reside in Tonopah and has taken the Squires residence Mr. Buhl, the able cartoonist of the Dally Sun, has departed for Reno; his clever work will be missed by the readwho will remain with her for some time.

Mr. John A. Perry, a popular attorney of the Cathedral parish, sprained his right ankle one day last week when alighting from a street car. Mr. Perry was removed to his home.

EUREKA, NEV.

"Miss Theresa Romano has completed teaching her term of school at Dewey district, Newark valley, and is now district, Newark vaniey, and is now visiting friends in Eureka. M. McGarry and daughter, Mrs. G. Hagar, returned Monday by private conveyance from Tonopah and Rhyo-lite, where they have been visiting re-

Henry Reed. ... Felix L. O'Nenl Who Leafs the Opposition. They were Misses Genevieve Lyman, Who Also Never Gives Up."

Professor Reed. ... Arthur A. Sexton Who Sometimes Forgets."

Nelson, a butter. William H. Bethman "Who Does Some Plotting."

Nelson, a butter william H. Bethman "Who Does Some Plotting."

Ohitugry.

Who Was graduated and their friends. The event, from all indications, will be one of the most noteworthy ever taking place here. A splendid protein gram is planned to be given. According to the usual rule of the order, installation will commence in the morning, when the candidates and lodge of ficers who are to put them through the Who Has Too Much to Say."

Mr. O'Nell was seized with an attack of illness just before the curtain rose on the first act, and had to be removed to his home. His place was taken by Mr. Dovie, who, considering that he had not rehearsed with the company acquitted himself admirably. The officers of the Dramatic club are:

President. Baymond E. Moies

No. Arthur A. Sexton Stage manager. Alights of St. Lawrence hall will be spread for about 2st. Fancis' School Closing.

St. Francis' School Closing.

After in large and and a wide circle of Friday of last week with an interesting program consisting of word and instrumental music. drills, recently and sons.

After the closing and the purple, who was not account of washouts.

Miss Anna Maguire and John A. Coleman of the carees of the order will attend mass a short recess will be sarred from that time until all the candidates have been put through the through the candidates have been put through the candidates have been put through the candidates and lodge of ficers who are to put them through the degrees of the order will attend mass a short recess will he sarred mass a short recess will asken, and at 1:20 degree work will an interpet was a commander to the strength of the work of the purple that the bar of the order will attend mass a short recess will asken, and at 1:20 degree work will an interpet was a strength of the work of the purple will an interpet was a strength of the company of the Peoria, III., the former home of the all present.

on the following young ladies: In the academic course, diplomas of graduation were conferred on Misses Agnes O'Brien, Caroline Gabisch, Jennie Geler, Katherine Haley, Aveline Millt, Antoinette Des Jardins and Myrtle Mc-Killican of Herein, Misses Wilds Van Killican of Henela; Misses Wilda Van Dyck of Gardiner, and Miss Norma Green of Billings.

grammar course. Miss Florence Walsh and Miss Jennie Geier were equal in merit for the gold cross presented by Bishop Carroll. To Miss Geier fell the honor of winning erson won the prize.

Miss Rena Mongrain won the go onduct medal among the juniors. excellent deportment medal was unani-mously voted to Miss Catherine B. Geary. Both these medals were donated by Sister Felicitas. Miss Marguerite Yund was awarded the medal for painting.

Misses Mamie Hayes of the third academic, Rose Geier of second ace-demic, Catherine Geary of first aca-demic, Estella Walsh of eighth grade, Mammie Anderson and Ruth Frede-ricks of the seventh grade, Teresa Gotthardt of sixth grade, Wilhelmina Gaivin of fourth grade, Irene Stevens of third grade, Marian Sillers of sec-and grade and Genevieve Haley of first grade were awarded premiums for bishest gragaril average in their and grade and Genevieve Haley of first strate of very light strate of using the spective classes.

After the distribution of prizes Right Rev. Bishop Carroll gave a practical address to the young ladies. Those who follow the advice given by his lordship will not only know how to school room, but will be school room, but will be seen and grade and Genevieve Haley of first in The DISTRICT COURT, PRObate division, in and for Salt Lake county, state of Utah. In the matter of the estate of Patrick Flood, deceased. Notice—The petition of Frank E. McGurrin, executor of the estate of Patrick Flood, deceased, for confirmation of the sale of the following described real estate of said decedent, to school room, but will be school room and school room and school room. (Special Correspondence.)

Mrs. James McKeough of Trinidad was a Denver visitor during the week.

Miss Jessie Curran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Curran, is touring Europe with a party of college friends.

(Special Correspondence.)

Judge J. P. O'Brien has been absent in Chicago on business. While there he attended the convention. The judge is expected home Wednesday.

Mrs. Tarpey was a Sunday visitor to Manhattan.

Old Tonopah is calling head.

The home of Mr.

The home of Mr.

BOZEMAN, MONT.

Rev. Father Thompson left on June

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Story, jr., left the east for several months, r yesterday for Salt Lake City, to visit to Butte early in September Mrs. Story's brother and family for a they will be at home to their fi

Mr. John Kopp, sr., who has been looking after his business interests in Bozeman, left this week for his home in Astoria, Ore. He was accompanied by his daughter, Lena, who has been visiting relatives here for several from the Montana State Normal school at Dillon, this week, Gallatin county is represented by five young ladies, all of them being native daughters and having received their preparatory education in the Boxeman schools. The girls from here that expect to receive diplomas are: Misses Eva Bower, Bessle Fowler, Barbara Heeb, Edith Maynard and Laura Maynard.

HELENA, MONT.

Helens, Mont., June 26. (Special Correspondence.) St. Vincent's academy and St. Alay-sius' Institute had their closing in the all present.

PROGRAM

Chorus, "Greeting" (De Feef), the seniors; our colors, "White and Gold," class if '08; salutatory, Norman Green, chorus, "Come Where the Lillies Bloom," St. Aloysius' high school: "Husarenitt" (Spindler), Carrie Gathard Antonick Dec Largies, Wilde bisch, Antoinette Des Jardins, Wilda Van Dyck, Myrtle McKillican, Jennie Geier, Catherine Hailey; "Blessings of Another pioneer of Denver, Mrs. Ellen Carberry, was called to her reward on Saturday, June 20, at the age of 85 years. She is survived by five of her eleven children, Mrs. Mary Ellen Croke, James. Charies and Frank Carberry of Denver, and Bud Carberry. formerly of this city, but now chief of police of Tomopah, Nev. Another son. Edward Carberry, who died a few years ago, was a prominent local politician. Mrs. Carberry made her home forming raduating diplomas; address Right Rev. J. P. Carroll. D. D.; "Holy Right Rev. J. P. Carroll, D. D.; "Holy God, We Praise Thy Name," grand

For bookkeeping Miss Bertha Shafer

For bookkeeping Miss Bertha Shaler received a diploma.
Wilma Geier, Estella Walsh, Judith Latch, Dora Kelly, Erma Kenney, Mary, Opp. Marguerite McCarthy Frances Garrigan. Margaret Fairgrieve, Seraphine Labric, Anna Immel. Agnes Schall, Milton Mongrain. Athert Welsner, Ernest Immel and Charles Wilsen were awarded diplomas in the grammar course.

plans for which a music room is going up rapidly, and plano, violin and vocal music will be taught. A select school and academy will be opened just as soon as the new building is completed. The sanitarium is beautifully situated, having extensive grounds with fine orchard and shade trees and will attract many people to our own. We have a fine church here under the administration of the Jesuit fathers.

Miss Geier, fell the honor of winning his lordship's valued prize. Misses Geier, A. Milot, M. McKillican, A. O'Brien, C. Haley, C. Gabisch, W. Van Dyck, N. Green, M. Hayes, I. Yund, A. Sweney, N. Sullivan, F. Walsh, M. Menth, F. Callahan, L. Plerce, E. Gillan, K. Geary, M. Anderson, E. Walsh, F. Garrigan and S. Duffy were equally controlled to draw for the gold medal presented by Very Rev. Victor Day, V. G., for deportment, Miss Mamie Anderson won the orize.

(Special Correspondence.) is for a three months' tour of Europe. Rev. Father Vincents of Salt Lake take charge of the parish for the sum- friends.

short time. They expect to go to Port-land, Ore., before returning.

In the class of thirty-one graduating coom were beautiful in decorations of pink carnations, smilax, ferns and potted plants.

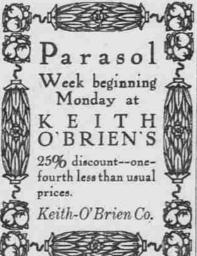

The bride and bridegroom were the Sunday morning a procession was formed at the half of the various phanage will be held next Monday night catholic societies, and, headed by a at 8 o'clock at the orphanage. The public is invited.

Z.C.M.I. Great End of June Clearance Sale

Commences Monday Morning, June 29th

The greatest Mid-summer sale in the history of Z. C. M. I. Third off all Undermuslins. Third off all Table Linens and Napkins. 20 per cent off all White Goods. 20 per cent off all Colored Summer Dress Goods. Variety of Summer Dress Goods at Half Price. Hammocks 25 per cent off. Sweeping Reductions throughout entire Cloak Department, ranging from 20 per cent to 50 mer cent off. Entire line of Dress Goods and Silks, 25 per cent off.

Many Other Exceptional Bargain Offerings That Will Appeal to You

CATERING

For Wedding Receptions and Social Functions a Specialty. 'Phone for estimates.

J. H. R. Franklin Company Phone 135.

PROBATE AND GUARDIANSHIP

NOTICES.

who follow the advice given by his lordship will not only know how to continue the good work done in the school room, but will avoid the dangers which are met in everyday life. The thoughts so beautifully yet simply expressed were charming because of the truths they con contained.

LIVINGSTON, MONT.

LIVINGSTON, MONT.

(Special Correspondence.)

R. L. Deimondorf is the father of a fine baby boy. Mother is doing nicely. The Mission of St. Mary's parish was opened by Rev. Father Bohlman at 10 o clock mass Sunday. June 21, and he will hold services morning and evening furing the week.

Billings and Livingston played a good game of ball today, Billings winning. It to 4.

William H. Scoville, 25 years of age, and a resident of Little Falls, Minn., was run over near Elton, Mont, and had both limbs cut off. He was brought to Livingston, where he died a few hours later.

BOZEMAN, MONT.

Work of love with two first that eartain piece or parcel of real estate to find the depth. with two frame houses and barn situate thereon, and being the same premises conveyed by Fred O. D. Meakin and Anna Meakin, his wife, to John Egan by deed dated August 8. 187, recorded September 14, 1887, for the sum of $300 cash.

That certain piece or parcel of real estate of the same premises conveyed by Fred O. D. Meakin and Anna Meakin, his wife, to John Egan by deed dated August 8. 187, recorded September 14, 1887, for the sum of $300 cash.

That certain piece or parcel of real estate of soft extraction piece or parcel of real estate of soft extraction piece or parcel of real estate of soft extraction piece on parcel of real estate of soft extraction piece or parcel of real estate of soft extraction piece or parcel of real estate of soft extraction piece or parcel of real estate of soft extraction piece or parcel of real estate of soft extraction piece or parcel of real estate of soft extraction piece or parcel of real estate of soft extraction piece or parcel of southwest corner of Peter Stubbis store and running there is a 30½ feet frontage

By W. H. FARNSWORTH, Clerk. Clerk. Edward McGurrin, Attorney for Execu-tor.

recipients of many beautiful presents City arrived in Bozeman Saturday to and congratulations from innumerable Mr. and Mrs. Coleman will remain in the east for several months, returning BUTTE, MONT.

Mrs. Anna Morony of Anaconda is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Morony at the Napton.

The united Irish societies of Silver Bow county are preparing for their annual picnic, which will be held at Co-

Fowler, Barbara Heeb, Edith Maynard and Laura Maynard.

The state Democratic convention will meet in Bozeman Wednesday, July 1, having been postponed from June 10 on account of washouts.

ANACONDA, MONT.

Rev. Father Landy of Butte was in the city Sunday and attended services at St. Peter's church.

Come to Santair on Tresday, Worth $5 to see the little ones Ann's have a good happy day. Miss Esther O'Keefe has gone to Den ver, where she will spend her vaca-

The church was decorated with purple lilacs and plants and bows of white ribbon.

After the ceremony the bridal party o'clock he celebrated his first solemn high mass at St. Peter's church, being in the home of Rev. Father Thompson, who is a close friend of the bride and bridegroom. The pariors and dining room were beautiful in decorations of pluk carnations, smilax, ferns and potted plants.

Father Louis Pirnat was given a roy-last suddent was entrival in the city last Sunday. Sunday morning at 11 o'clock he celebrated his first solemn high mass at St. Peter's church, being assisted by Fathers Michael and J. B. Pirnat. A number of the Butte clergy were in attendance at the services. Sunday morning a procession was formed at the hall of the various ted plants. Father Louis Pirnat was given a royPhones: Ind., 28 and 2368; Bell, 2368-X

SEE

Bernard O. Mecklenburg Architect and Superintendent BEFORE BUILDING

Room 339 Atlas Block. 945 E. So. Temple St. Salt Lake City.

VACATION MONEY

You and your wife will want a vacation soon. Better turn in your claims now and we will collect them. If we don't get the money in time for you to take it with you, it will come in handy when you return. Everybody will pay. Turn in your claims

A. Wescher, Proprietor

MERCHANTS' PROTECTIVE ASSOCIATION

SCIENTIFIC COLLECTORS OF HONEST DEBTS. 77 to 100 Commercial National Bank Building, Salt Lake City, Utah Francis G. Luke, General Manager. "SOME PEOPLE DON'T LIKE US

Midsummer Shoes

The kind you need for this hot weather.

High Cuts, Low Cuts, Bluchers-all kinds. Tans, White Canvas, Brown Canvas, Patent Leather, Vici Kid.

Big assortment, and the styles you want at the prices you want to page State Street Shoe Store

No Trust Here

THE BEST MEATS AND GROCERIES IN THE CITY.

Marriott's Meat & Grocery Store 22-24 West First South

& P. depot, where the visitors from Butte were received. All the members were in uniform and presented a fine appearance. The march was then made to St. Peter's church, where solemn high mass was celebrated by Father Louis Pirnat. Father Venus of Helona president of the Catholic college at Hel-ena and chancellor of the diocese, delivered an appropriate sermon. Father Bilben of Eveleth, Minn., was also an interested member of the services, havng been one of the instructors of the Pirnat brothers.

During the services excellent music was furnished by the choir.

250 State Street.

DILLON, MONT.

Rev. Father Foley of Dillon received word last Saturday morning from Chi-cago of the death of his brother, Wil-liam Foley, in that city. Father Foley left the same evening to be present at the funeral. The body will be shipped to Dubuque, Ia., where interment will be made Altar Society Day at Saltair. Come to Saltair on Tuesday, Aug. 11. Worth $5 to see the little ones from St.

be made

Choir Practice. The young ladies of the St. Cecilia chorus will meet Sunday morning at 9:30 for rehearsal.

FOR RENT. Nicely furnished rooms, 250 First aveue, rear of St. Mary's cathedral. St. Ann's Closing Exercises.

Phone Olive 1582.

THE JAMES CLARKE

CHURCH GOODS HOUSE

RELIGIOUS ARTICLES,

CATHOLIC BOOKS.

MAGAZINES, ETC.

The Largest Catholic Supply

cern in the West.

1645-47 California St., Denver, Cal

WOMEN'S FANCY and PLAIN HOSIERY

25 dozen pairs, 50c values close at 34c. 3 pairs for $1.00

Sunday school is at 9:30